AND MOTION TO STRIKE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE ALFRED H. BENNETT U.S.D.J.

NOW COMES Third Party Defendants James M. Andersen, and Elizabeth Thomas jointly with Plaintiffs James Allen, Robert L. Thomas and Allen Haye (the "Movant") and seeks the record to reflect that Attorney John Burger and the Law Firm Barry & Sewart, PLLC has refused to Show Authority, to prosecute this case and continues to act without authority and Objection to Third Party Defendant J.P. Morgan Chase Bank N.A. was expunged from Debtor Elizabeth Thomas and Allan Haye bankruptcy after a finding of non-creditor status as such lacks standing before this Court and files this Objection Summary Judgment Evidence and Motion to Strike and respectfully shows the following:

OBJECTIONS TO EVIDENCE

The Movants objects to and respectfully requests that this Court strike the following evidence found in Defendant PCF Properties of Texas LLC., Successor to Flagstone Lending Group a fictitious Non-Existent Utah Corporation and Third Party J.P. Morgan Chase Bank N.A., Exhibits in support of their to Amended Motion for Summary Judgment.

1) Exhibit A:

a. Exhibit A is a copy of a Warranty Deed formerly recorded on October 25, 2007, in the Harris County Real Property Records under clerks file No. 20070643668, which has since been corrected and removed.

b. This Exhibit is irrelevant under Fed. R. Evid. 401 must be excluded. The evidence is “irrelevant” because it does not establish a genuine dispute as to the pleaded material facts for the affirmative defenses of illegality, lack of existence and res judicata evidence is relevant only where it has any tendency in reason to prove or disprove a material fact.

a. Exhibit A-1 is a copy of a Deed of Trust (the “Contract”) formerly recorded on October 25, 2007, in the Harris County Real Property Records under Clerk File No. 20070643669.

b. the contract recites that the lender name is Flagstone Lending Group lender is a corporation organized and existing under the State of Utah. Lender address being 4750 West Wiley Post Way Salt Lake City, Utah 84116.

c. Exhibit A-1 is cited for the proposition that opposing parties who are not a party to said contract seeks to alter, add to, change the language in the contract to Flagstone Lending Group is a d/b/a, for Primary Residential Mortgage Inc.,

d. Movants object to this Exhibit extent of opposing party seeks to alter, add to, change the language in the contract it is impermissible. A written contract cannot be added to, varied, or contradicted by parol evidence. See; Edascio, 264 S.W. 3d at 796; ISG State Operations, 234 S.W.3d at 719. Evidence that violates the rule is incompetent and is without probative force, and cannot properly be given any legal effect. See: Garner v. Fidelity Bank, N.A., 244 S.W.3d 855, 859 (Tex. App.-Dallas 2008, no pet.). It's a fundamental rule of law that "Courts may neither rewrite the parties' contract nor add to its language." See Am. Mfrs. Mut. Ins. Co. v. Schaefer, 124 S.W.3d 154, 162 (Tex. 2003); see also Dahlberg v. Holden, 238 S.W.2d 699, 701 (Tex. 1951) (quoting 13 C.J. Contracts § 496 (1917)). Since parol evidence is generally inadmissible in evidence to vary the terms of a written contract, parol evidence is not proper summary judgment evidence.

2) Exhibit B:

a. Exhibit B is a document from the Texas Secretary of State which certifies the existence of Primary Residential Mortgage Inc., and also certifies an a Assume Name Certificate for Flagstone Lending Group used by Primary.

b. Exhibit B is cited for the proposition that Deed of Trust (the Contract ) at issue formerly recorded on October 25, 2007, in the Harris County Real Property Record under clerks file No. 20070643669, Exhibit A-1 which names the lender as Flagstone Lending Group a Corporation Organized and Existing under the Laws of the State of Utah, in is instead d/b/a Flagstone Lending Group of Primary Residential Mortgage Inc.

c. It is cited to support proposition that Flagstone Lending Group is not a Corporation Organized and Existing under the Laws of the State of Utah as recited in the Deed of Trust (the “Contract”) but is instead a local Texas d/b/a.

d. This Exhibit is inadmissible parol evidence: only where a contract is first determined to be ambiguous may the courts consider the parties' interpretation, and admit extraneous evidence to determine the true meaning of the instrument parol evidence rule precludes consideration of extrinsic evidence to contradict, vary or add to an unambiguous written agreement for the purpose of creating an ambiguity to give the contract recitals a meaning different from that which its language imports. *See: Wright v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., No. 6:09-CV-183, 2010 WL 278482, at *4* (E.D.Tex. Jan. 19, 2010) (Davis, J.) In re H.E. Butt Grocery Co., 17 S.W.3d 360, 369 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2000), See: Sacks v. Haden, 266 S.W.3d 447, 450 (Tex. 2008) (per curiam). A written contract cannot be added to, varied, or contradicted by parol evidence. See; Edascio, 264 S.W. 3d at 796; ISG State Operations, 234 S.W.3d at 719. Evidence that violates the rule is incompetent and is without probative force, and cannot properly be given any legal effect. See: Garner v. Fidelity Bank, N.A., 244 S.W.3d 855, 859 (Tex. App.-Dallas 2008, no pet.). It's a fundamental rule of law that “Courts may neither rewrite the parties' contract nor add to its language.” See Am. Mfrs. Mut. Ins. Co.

v. Schaefer, 124 S.W.3d 154, 162 (Tex. 2003); see also Dahlberg v. Holden, 238 S.W.2d 699, 701 (Tex. 1951) (quoting 13 C.J. Contracts § 496 (1917)). Since parol evidence is generally inadmissible in evidence to vary the terms of a written contract, parol evidence is not proper summary judgment evidence.

b. This Exhibit is irrelevant under Fed. R. Evid. 401 and 402 because Primary Residential Mortgage Inc., d/b/a Flagstone Lending Group is not named as lender in the Deed of Trust (the Contract ) at issue formerly recorded on October 25, 2007, in the Harris County Real Property Record under clerks file No. 20070643669 and must be excluded pursuant to Fed.
